

The Shrubberies School Curriculum

The Curriculum at the Shrubberies School and The Apperley Centre ...

- Is ambitious and aspirational
- recognises the individual child or young person
- is flexible to meet the needs of the child or young person
- is informed by the child or young person's voice
- covers every minute of the school day – every opportunity is a learning opportunity
- encourages and develops Independence, resilience, respect and confidence
- has literacy, mathematics and ICT embedded within it
- encourages children and young people to communicate in their preferred mode of communication
- is enriched with a wide variety of experiences
- is processed based and meaningful to the life of the child
- meets the sensory needs of the child or young person
- promotes a healthy life style including mental health
- promotes Spiritual, Moral, Social, Cultural Development and British Values
- encourages the respect of other cultures and the environment
- recognises the rights of the child to a special education, to develop their own talents and abilities, to rest and to play
- promotes the best outcomes for the individual child or young person
- provides skills and knowledge for future learning and employment

